Foundation Announces Initial Winners

The Mary John Goree Las Animas County Scholarship Foundation is pleased to announce the four initial winners of the Mary John Goree Las Animas County Scholarship:

Matthew DeAngelis	Trinidad High School
Bailee Jones	Hoehne High School
Megan Robins	Hoehne High School
Sydnee Waller	Hoehne High School

According to Foundation president, David J. Vandermeulen, “In selecting these four highly-qualified students as initial winners, the board of directors of the Foundation is recognizing the academic excellence and outstanding personal qualities they have demonstrated during their high school years and expressing its confidence that they will continue to pursue academic excellence in their future education.”

The board of directors of the Foundation will finalize the class of recipients after May 1, the deadline for the initial winners to inform the Foundation if they are accepting the Foundation’s offer of a scholarship.

The Mary John Goree Las Animas County Scholarship offers recipients a guaranteed minimum award of full tuition and fees that can be used at any four-year college or university in the United States (other than Princeton University) plus the possibility of an additional award based upon financial need.
